

FORTNIGHTLY NEWSLETTER

Friday 18th November 2022

Dear Parents / Carers,
Thank you to everyone who joined us for parent's evening last week. It was wonderful to have so many of you in school and to be able to resume face to face meetings.

We hope you enjoyed the book fair - it really was a fabulous collection although the library looks really empty now the books have been taken! We have raised £100 to go towards new books, thanks to all of the books that staff and parents bought.

This fortnights newsletter is very much about upcoming events.

We absolutely love the run up to Christmas and want to give you as much notice as possible.

We raised £100 today for Children in Need. Thank you all so much.

As always please do not hesitate to get in touch if we can support you in any way.

Mrs Emma Harding
Headteacher

Phone calls

We appreciate there have been a number of calls from the office in the last few weeks. Where possible we are trying to reduce the number of calls but often it is because we are chasing permissions that haven't been returned.

DON'T FORGET

- Attendance in school is vital to long term success for our children.
- Last week we had our meeting with the Local Authority to agree which families needed support.

Young voices

Young Voices is now fully booked for our Year 6 children to go to the AO Arena on Wednesday 1st February. Tickets have been purchased and the office will contact you regarding payment. Now all that's left is to learn the songs!!! No pressure!!!

SMART Club

UPDATE

Due to the demand for SMART club we are increasing the number of children that can be booked on each session.

Please continue to book via School Money. If you need to book for the current day you will still need to phone the school office to request the place.

Stars of the week

This weeks stars of the week from last week and this week are:

Nursery: Leo and Harley

Reception: Bri Elle and Oliviyae

Year 1: George and Charlotte

Year 2: Tihami and Jack

Year 3: Thomas and Kyle

Year 4/5: Keira and Layla

Year 6: Ivy and Anne-Jolina

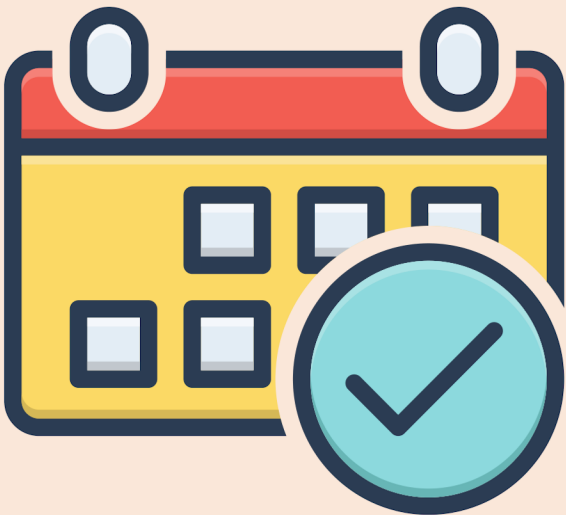

Stars of the week are children who have tried really hard with their learning or gone out of their way to show our school values of: hope, perseverance, courage, love, friendship and forgiveness. They will come home today with a badge to celebrate - they can keep this.
