

What difference will the Leading Parent Partnership Award make to Bredbury St Marks ?

Working towards the LPPA will enhance links between home and school. This is important to us as we know that when positive relationships are built, children 's learning improves.

What can families and external partners do to help Bredbury St Marks school achieve this award ?

- Read all newsletters and publicity we send out.
- Come along to events we organise if you are able to.
- Complete any questionnaires or feedback forms we send out as honestly as you can.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your continued support with your child 's education.

We look forward to working with you more closely. If you have any questions, suggestions or just want to know more, please contact me on the email address below.

Thanks

Leading Parent Partnership Information for all Partners involved

What is the Leading Parent Partnership Award?

The LPPA is a nationally recognised award achieved by schools who work very closely with the families of their pupils. The assessment is made by an external advisor.

What do you have to do to achieve the award?

Schools have to work towards meeting nine different objectives, building up lots of evidence to support them before they can achieve the award. (see overleaf for details).

When will we achieve the award?

By the end of this academic year 2023
